Radiation Therapy Services Holdings, Inc. Announces CFO Transition

FORT MYERS, Florida, April 21, 2011 — Radiation Therapy Services Holdings, Inc. (“Radiation Therapy Services” or the “Company”) today announced the resignation of its Chief Financial Officer, Kerrin E. Gillespie, effective May 16, 2011. The Company has initiated an executive search for a new Chief Financial Officer to replace Mr. Gillespie. Effective May 17, 2011, Bryan Carey, a member of the Company’s board of directors, will serve as interim Chief Financial Officer and will manage the transition process until a successor is named. Mr. Gillespie will be assuming a senior operating finance role at Health Management Associates, Inc. (NYSE:HMA), where he previously held various roles in operations and finance.

Dr. Daniel Dosoretz, President and Chief Executive Officer, said, “On behalf of the board of directors and the Radiation Therapy management team, I want to thank Kerry for his outstanding contributions to the company. Kerry played an instrumental role in further building our finance and IT infrastructure that will serve as a platform for our next phase of growth and expansion. He also played a key role in the Exchange Offer related to our Senior Subordinated Notes we completed in January 2011 and the recent financing completed in conjunction with the Medical Developers acquisition in March 2011. We wish Kerry well in all of his future endeavors. We are also grateful that Bryan will step in and assist us during this transition.”

As a reminder, Radiation Therapy Services will report its financial results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2011 after the close of the U.S. capital markets on Wednesday, May 11, 2011.

In addition, the Company will host a conference call on Thursday, May 12, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. EDT, during which management will discuss the financial results in further detail. The conference call and replay of the conference call may be accessed as follows:
